NEW YORK RED BULLS ANNOUNCES NEW YOUTH PARTNERSHIP

Red Bulls Training Programs to provide Professional Youth Programming to

Oceanside United Soccer Club

HARRISON, N.J. (6/28/2017) – The New York Red Bulls have agreed to a youth development partnership with Oceanside United Soccer Club, the club announced today.

As a result of the partnership, the Red Bulls will provide Oceanside United Soccer Club with a complete club development program. Benefits will include onsite Red Bulls coaching staff, curriculum and RED Print access, player clinics, team training, coach education workshops, and a training camp.

“Oceanside United Soccer Club is very proud and excited to partner with the Red Bulls and provide the next level of skills, training and knowledge to all of our players, from our youngest u4 through our travel teams. The Red Bulls commitment to the overall growth and well-being of youth soccer players is well known and is exactly the fit OUSC is looking for in our ongoing plan to provide access to high level training for all interested OUSC players and their families.”

-Mike O'Malley - President Oceanside United Soccer Club

Red Bulls Academy Training Programs Regional Manager for Long Island, Jerome Vivona said: "We are truly excited to work with the Oceanside United Soccer Club; for many years Oceanside has been a leader in the Long Island Soccer Community - they have always strived to provide the very best environment for their players to develop and grow. We look forward to engaging club members and partnering with the club to provide unparalleled support and education to their players and families".

The grassroots partnership provides Oceanside United Soccer Club a unique opportunity to partner with a leading Major League Soccer team and benefit from an extensive range of youth soccer expertise.

The initiative will also help connect young players to the professional game. As part of the curriculum, players are actively encouraged to watch soccer games and, through a special offer, are provided with the opportunity to attend a live professional match at Red Bull Arena, a state of the art soccer stadium, located in Harrison, N.J.

About the New York Red Bulls Player Development System

The New York Red Bulls maintain one of the premier youth development programs in the United States, committed to identifying and developing talent in the tri-state area. The Red Bulls Player Development System is a multi-layered program that provides professional support at all levels of the game. Each level of the player development pyramid has been structured to provide the best development opportunities to players, coaches and youth soccer organizations. Within the local community, programs are offered for players of all ages and abilities. For players with outstanding ability, there is an opportunity to progress from the grassroots Training Programs to the Regional Development School, then on to the Academy Teams and, ultimately, to the Red Bulls professional team. Red Bulls Academy teams are consistently ranked among the top programs in the nation. Red Bulls players make regular appearances in U.S. Soccer Youth National Teams and NCAA Division I programs.
